Authorization to File an Extension of Time to File your Business, Trust or Estate Income Tax Return

If you are unable to assemble all the documents and information necessary for us to prepare your tax return by the tax deadline, we suggest that you allow us to electronically file an extension. Following are the due dates and extended due dates for calendar year entities (12/31 year-end):

| Entity Type | Tax Form | Due Date | Extended Due Date |
|----------------|----------|----------|-------------------|
| S Corporation | 1120S | 3/15 | 9/15 |
| Partnership | 1065 | 3/15 | 9/15 |
| Trust / Estate | 1041 | 4/15 | 9/30 |

We also must have a signed engagement letter for your S Corporation, Partnership, or Trust / Estate before preparing an extension for that separate entity.

Please be aware that filing an extension of time to file for your business or trust/estate tax return does not also extend the time to file your individual income tax return. A separate extension is required for your individual income tax return.

To give your consent for us to e-file an extension on your behalf, please sign below where indicated.

I have read and understand the above and authorize you to e-file and extension for my current year non-individual income tax return.
